

Expertly designed Devon kitchens.

As a close-knit, local team, we, Paul and Damian, are passionate about creating unique, exceptional quality interiors that make a difference in our clients' lives. And, having dedicated much of our careers to honing our craft, we can safely say there's not much we don't know about creating outstanding kitchens!

We are proud to supply the finest British-made products. However, it's our supportive, personalised and honest service that takes our interiors to the next level. We work closely with all our clients to ensure their new spaces deliver everything they hoped for and more.

As you'll soon discover, all our kitchens are carefully tailored to complement our clients' individual styles and practical needs. That's why no two designs ever look alike!

We hope you enjoy browsing the beautiful interiors we've created.

Sophisticated & Luxurious Kitchen Diner

This stylish two-tone kitchen in Sidmouth creates a luxurious backdrop to dining with friends and family. A timeless combination of rich Oxford blue and elegant grey cabinetry in a painted, grained finish adds a touch of opulence to the scheme.

Providing essential extra storage and work surfaces, a small peninsula makes a big difference to the functionality of the space. It establishes a practical boundary between the cooking and dining areas, enhancing our client's workflow.

One of our favourite design features is the slim wine rack. It makes the perfect sophisticated finishing touch. This beautiful Sidmouth kitchen is as practical as it is luxurious.

"This kitchen was a joy to design and install. Commanding stunning countryside views, our chic yet practical solution has beautifully elevated the space."

Bright & Airy Coastal Kitchen

This clean and minimal handleless kitchen strikes the perfect balance between pared-back elegance and homely charm. The streamlined cabinetry, crisp white worktops and Scots Grey base units bring a bright and airy feel to the space.

The soft Coastal Mist island adds a lovely pop of colour and vibrancy, tying in beautifully with our client's décor. Light oak veneer tall cabinets complete the design, establishing a wonderful, warm and tranquil atmosphere.

Every element has been meticulously considered, and our clients were absolutely delighted with their new space.

“We love the subtle and sophisticated feel pairing natural wood finishes with handleless furniture creates. This spacious Lyme Regis kitchen was a pleasure to design and install.”

Contemporary & Elegant Handleless Kitchen

This kitchen combines dark grey handleless cabinetry with subtle gold accents for a sleek, sophisticated look. Paired with Caesarstone Georgian Bluff worktops and a Ligna Washed Oak splashback, it introduces a warm, organic touch that balances the modern design.

At the centre, a spacious island provides ample room for meal prep and casual dining, featuring a Bosch induction hob for seamless functionality. A custom pantry with multiple shelves and soft-close drawers adds practical storage, maintaining a smooth, tranquil feel.

With its timeless design and cutting-edge features, this kitchen is perfect for cooking, entertaining, and enjoying in style.

"The blend of dark cabinetry and the Ligna Washed Oak splashback isn't something you see everyday. It took a unique mindset to maintain balance and create a visually striking kitchen."

Charming Traditional In-Frame Kitchen

With gorgeous solid oak beams and thick stone walls, this beautiful Axminster home undeniably needed an equally beautiful and charming kitchen.

Our Cotswold framed solid wood range made a perfect choice. The in-frame design with exposed hinges and intricate beaded detailing exudes character and charm.

Our client had already decided on a fresh yet elegant pale blue painted finish. We suggested introducing this delightful colour to the base cabinets while opting for white on the overhead units to keep the space as bright and open as possible.

Bright & Inviting Modern Kitchen

Having just renovated their home, our clients were looking to create a stylish yet inviting kitchen. They needed a practical space that would make the whole family feel included.

The island plays an essential role in forming an efficient and sociable layout. It provides plenty of space to prepare and cook food while facing the room.

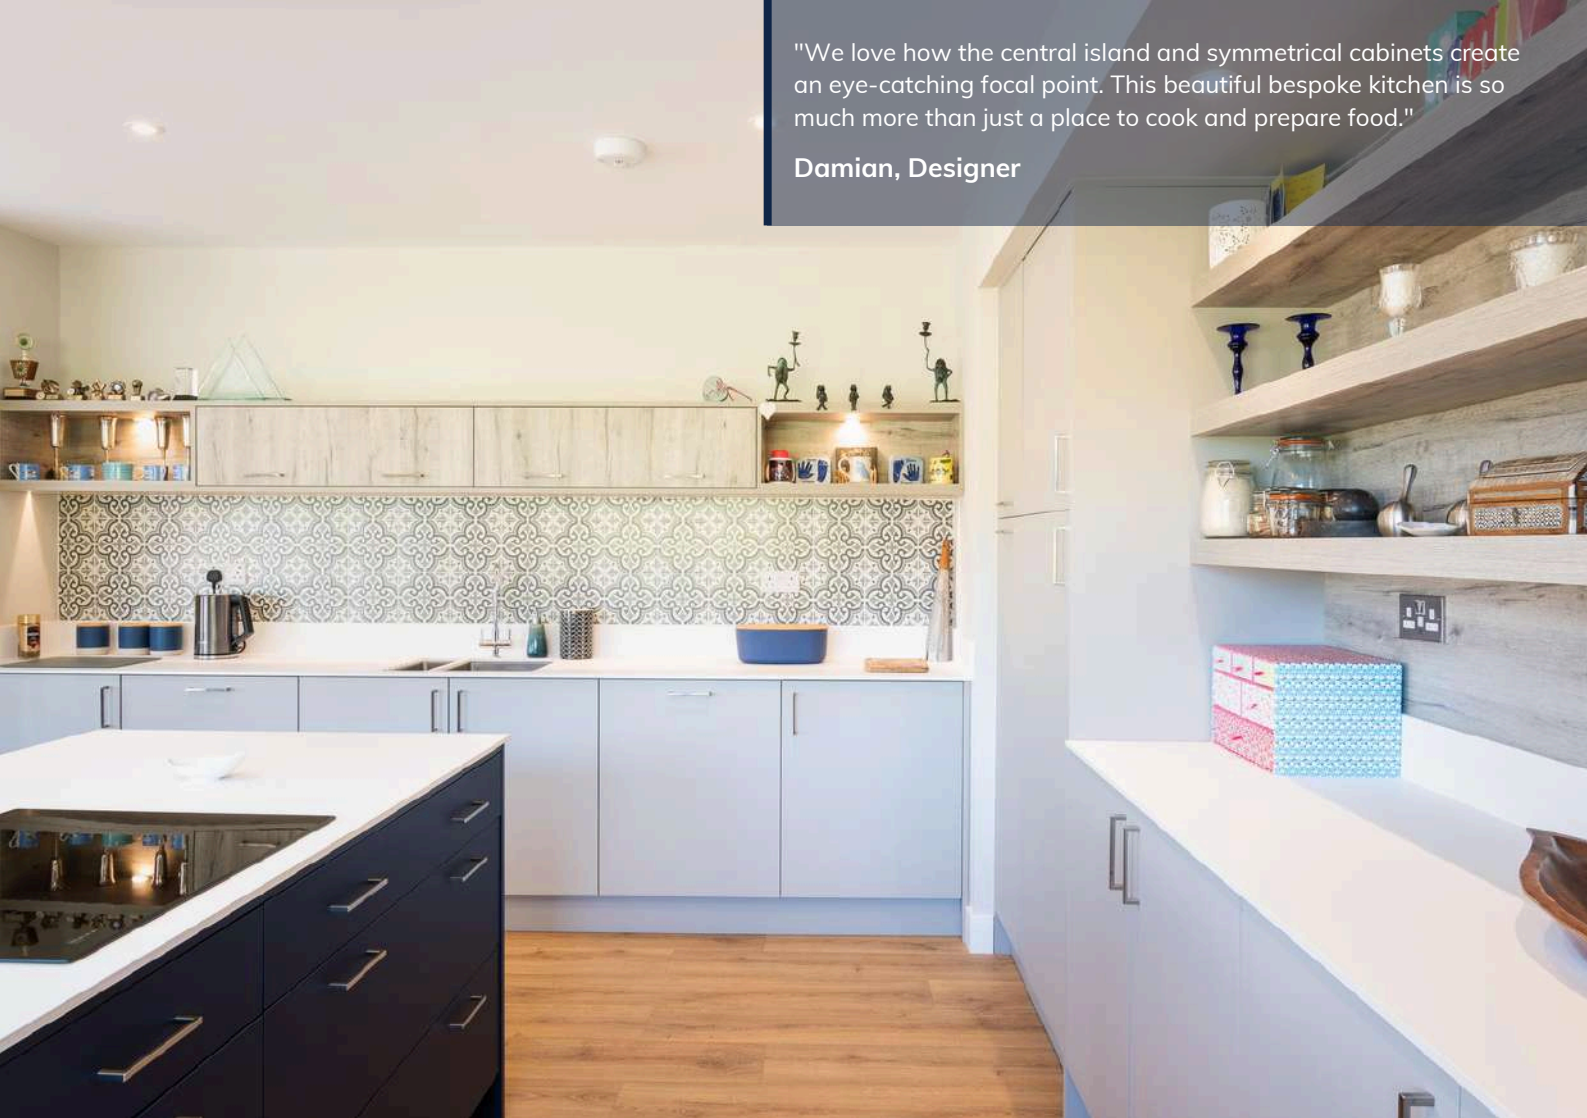

Combining timeless colours, warm wood accents and cutting-edge functionality, this fresh modern kitchen delivers everything our clients hoped for and more.

"We love how the central island and symmetrical cabinets create an eye-catching focal point. This beautiful bespoke kitchen is so much more than just a place to cook and prepare food."

Showstopping Handleless Kitchen

Our Ottery St Mary clients were looking to bring a stunning focal point to their home, and this breathtaking modern kitchen certainly delivers. A sleek bank of Titanium Metalix tall units set the tone of the room.

As well as maximising storage space, the spectacular handleless cabinets establish a wonderful sense of drama and sophistication. They tie in perfectly with the luxurious, subtly veined Arabetto quartz worktops.

Simple matt Truffle Pietra and Heritage Grey units offset the striking Titanium Metalix surface, bringing an elegant and inviting quality to the dramatic interior.

"This light and airy contemporary kitchen makes a striking impact. It is just what our Ottery St Mary clients were looking for."

Damian, Designer

Stylish & Playful Family Kitchen

The bright yellow range cooker from Bertazzoni undeniably steals the show. It creates a vibrant and playful focal point for this airy family kitchen.

Our client was keen to create a space that would reflect their personality while looking classic and fresh. Our pairing of elegant shaker furniture in Highland Stone with stylish black handles does just that. Charming timber worktops bring a lovely warmth to the room.

This beautiful Lyme Regis kitchen establishes a light and inviting ambience, evoking an on-trend Scandi aesthetic.

Bright & Characterful Country Kitchen

This charming Honiton kitchen is sure to put a smile on anyone's face. Combining a lovely, warm yet fresh colour scheme, quintessential, intricately moulded shaker doors, characterful oak accents and a wonderful Rangemaster cooker, you can almost smell the bread baking in the oven.

From the slim overhead units to the expertly placed open shelving, this Honiton kitchen is brimming with thoughtful design details.

We utilised the corner by the door to create a handy tea-making station. The shelving below it provides the ideal place for our clients to store their collection of recipe books and ornaments, creating an attractive display. This kitchen is every bit as practical as it is charming.

“Our client was looking for a traditional kitchen that would capture their personality, and our bright and stylish bespoke design didn’t disappoint.”

Striking Island Kitchen In Opulent Inkwell

This modern Masterclass kitchen combines style and function, featuring Sutton Silk Inkwell cabinetry and white Ceasarstone quartz worktops. The upper cabinetry in Ligna Mayfield Oak adds a rustic charm.

The design optimises space with extensive storage, including an island with open shelving and a bespoke wine rack next to a wine cooler. State-of-the-art appliances like a Samsung refrigerator, wine cooler, Quooker tap, Elica extractor hob and Bosch double oven are seamlessly integrated.

Under-cabinet lighting brightens the space, centred around an island that doubles as a prep and dining area with burnt orange bar stools. Copper teardrop pendant lights add a decorative touch.

"Our clients were delighted with how we personalised their space to meet their exact needs and they loved the use of wood and colour to add character to the space."

Shaker Kitchen With A Contemporary Twist

This stylish shaker kitchen feels wonderfully bright and modern. It makes the perfect place to cook family meals and enjoy a fresh coffee.

Our Seaton clients were keen to streamline their space and devise a user-friendly solution. The U-shaped layout facilitated by the addition of a peninsula offers ample worktop and storage space. We also worked closely with our clients to help them choose the best appliances to suit their needs.

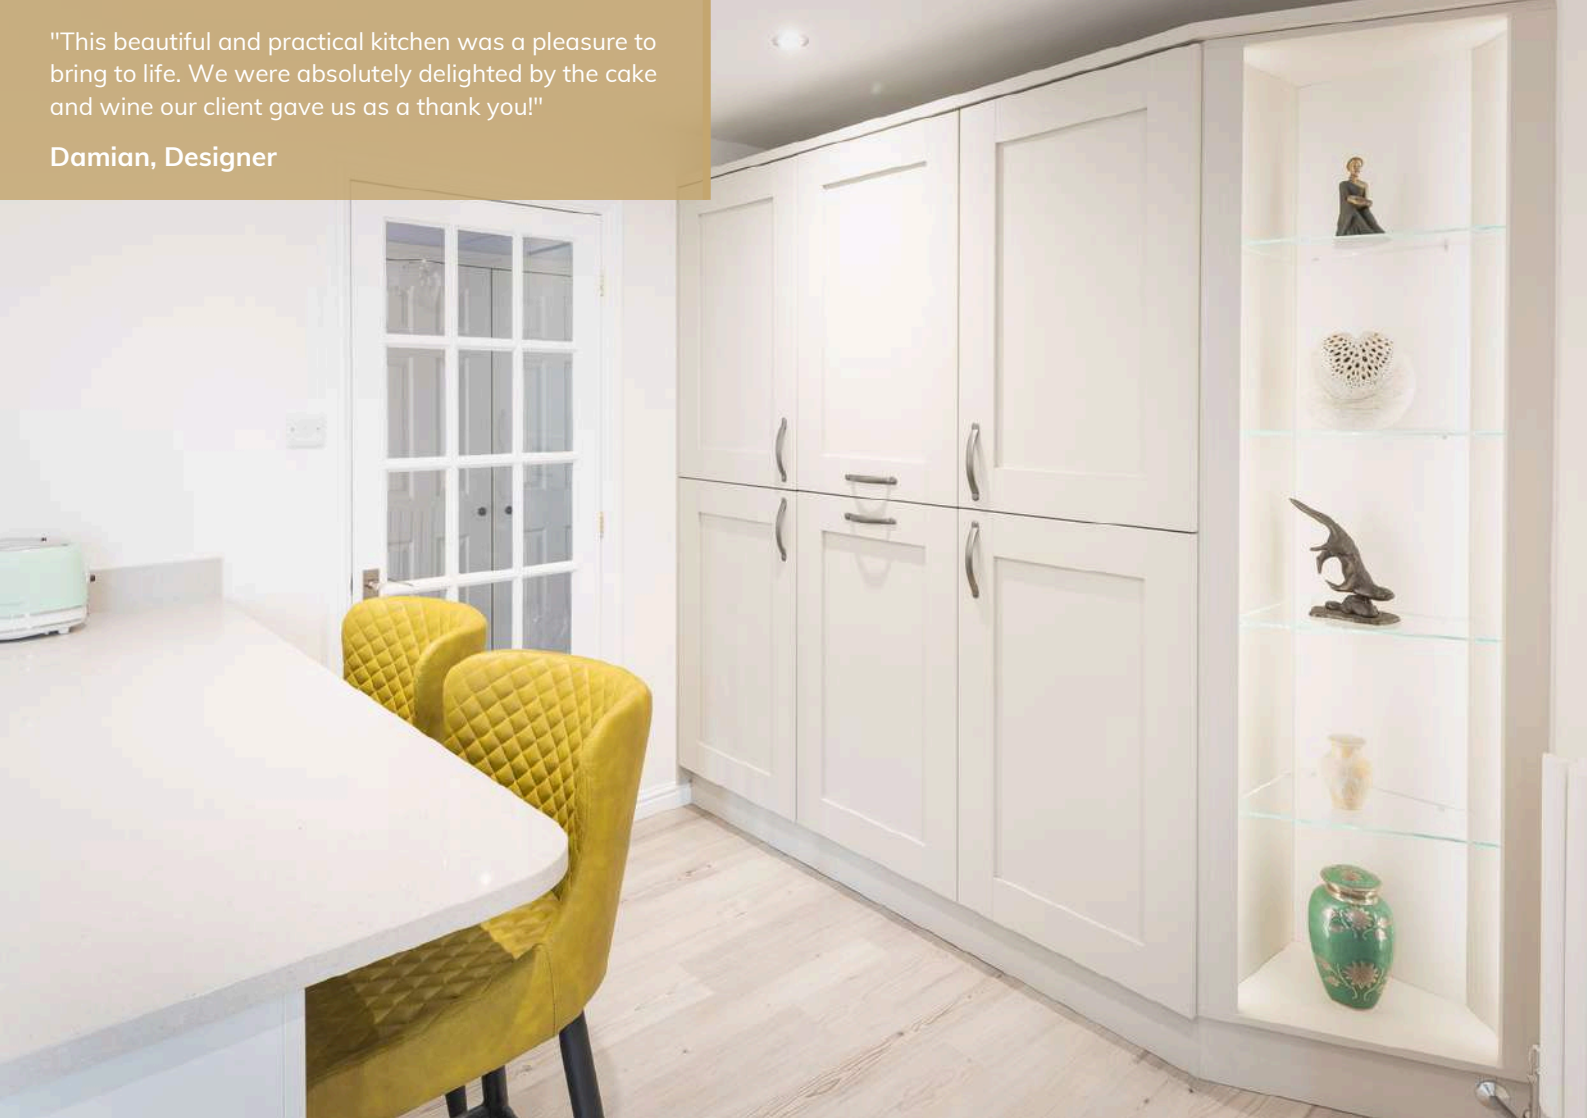

Our elegant, well-thought-out design has certainly helped our Seaton clients make the most of their space.

"This beautiful and practical kitchen was a pleasure to bring to life. We were absolutely delighted by the cake and wine our client gave us as a thank you!"

Tranquil & Luxurious Modern Bathroom

This bathroom design combines style and functionality, using high-end materials and sleek finishes to create a visually stunning yet practical space. The standout feature is the stone-effect wall behind the bathtub, with soft whites and muted greys contrasting beautifully against a deep green tiled wall, creating a tranquil atmosphere.

Ca Pietra Oasis & Hollywood tiles add texture, while polished chrome fixtures from Crosswater give the room a contemporary touch. Recessed shower alcoves provide stylish storage, and the overall blend of natural tones and premium finishes offers a luxurious experience for our clients.

Serene & Sophisticated Ensuite Bathroom

This exquisite bathroom has been crafted to deliver an atmosphere of calm and luxury with a blend of natural light and contemporary design. Fresh white walls enhance the spacious feel, while the Ca Pietra wall tiles in Maldives Lagoon encasing the bathtub evoke the tranquility of the ocean.

A floating vanity in natural wood brings warmth, with Crosswater brassware complementing the sleek, modern look. Recessed lighting offers soft, ambient illumination, perfect for unwinding.

Serene & Stylish Modern Bathroom

This bathroom is designed for calm and elegance, blending clean lines with a harmonious colour palette. The centrepiece is a Mereway Furniture vanity in Reed Green, topped with a white basin, providing ample storage and a tranquil finish.

The shower features Ca Pietra Folly Sand & Limewood tiles with natural stone-like patterns, creating a spa-like atmosphere. A glass-enclosed shower with sleek Crosswater fittings adds minimalist luxury, while the frameless design keeps the space open and light.

Recessed shelving offers convenient storage, framed with patterned tiles that bring flair to the neutral walls. Luxurious materials and thoughtful details make this bathroom a serene retreat.

Opulent Traditional Bathroom

Featuring a free-standing, clawfoot bathtub, this bathroom exudes classic charm. The beautiful, patterned flooring contributes to the room's classic aesthetic. A dual vanity painted in a timeless and elegant dark blue adds character and functionality to the space.

Above the vanity is a large, framed mirror with integrated lighting, providing a sleek and functional design feature.

The lower half of the walls are finished with white wainscoting, which adds texture and a nod to classic interior styling. A traditional white toilet with a matching blue seat ties in with the room's colour scheme. Our clients have done a lovely job of accessorising the space and adding their own personal touch.

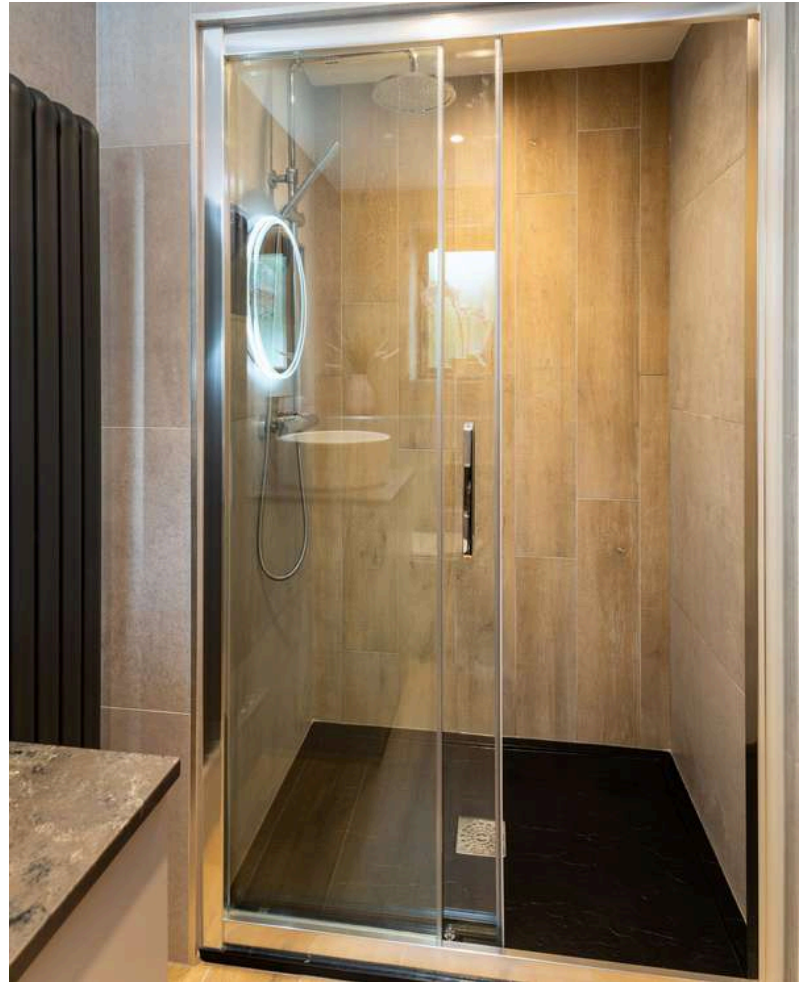

Calming Bathroom With Natural Finishes

A combination of calming natural textures, muted colours and sleek, uncluttered fixtures bring a tranquil feel to this plush Sidmouth bathroom.

A stylish designer radiator, chic round basin, eye-catching mirror, and elegant shower cubicle deliver exceptional style and functionality. They give this interior a trendy yet timeless modern look. Plus, they are highly practical to use and maintain.

Our Sidmouth clients were very excited to try out their gorgeous new bathroom for the first time.

Clean Contemporary Bathroom

As owners of a charming and spacious holiday home in Seaton, our clients were looking for a fresh and practical bathroom that would ensure their guests have the best stay.

The vanity is ideal for keeping cleaning products and spares neatly out of sight, while the built-in wall niches and ledge around the WC offer the perfect place for guests to leave their toiletries.

This elegant contemporary bathroom undeniably ticks all the boxes.

Elegant Classic Bathroom

This exquisite bathroom seamlessly blends traditional bathroom components with modern finishes. The beautifully textured tiling envelops the roll-top shower bath enclosure, perfectly complemented by the characterful Victorian mixer bridge tap.

From the eye-catching chrome finishes on the bathtub's feet to the ornate curved chrome details adorning the traditional high-level toilet, these elements come together to create a serene atmosphere for this classic retreat.

The bathroom's vibrant and refreshing colour palette is an appealing blend of deep blues and pristine whites, evoking a coastal, almost beach-inspired setting in this stunning space.

Bold Japanese Inspired Bathroom

This bold bathroom design blends rich tones with sleek black Crosswater fixtures to create an invigorating space in Lyme Regis. Textures are key, with waterproof Slatwall adding depth and soft matte Ca Pietra tiles bringing a refined finish. The mix of wood and stone elements gives the room a natural, modern feel.

A luxurious bathtub in a custom stone-tiled enclosure and a minimalist shower enhance the open, contemporary vibe. A bespoke storage unit beside the sink serves as both a functional and eye-catching statement piece, making this bathroom a stylish yet practical retreat.
